

Call for Volunteers

AWMAC Standards Committee + NAAWS Committee

Released April 13, 2022

AWMAC is calling for volunteers to participate on AWMAC's Standards Committee ("Committee"). Committee participation includes participation on AWMAC's and Woodwork Institute's North American Architectural Woodwork Standards ("NAAWS") Committee.

What Does The Committee Do?

The key responsibility of the Committee is to make recommendations regarding architectural woodwork standards, and specifically, recommendations for the NAAWS (also referred to as "AWMAC's Standards"). Additional responsibilities may include, but are not limited to:

- Participating in related marketing and educational initiatives,
- Assisting with the development and maintenance of AWMAC Standard's related programs, and
- Clarifying and reviewing AWMAC's Standards.

Who Can Join The Committee?

Any AWMAC member in good standing may apply.

How Do I Apply?

Interested candidates are invited to complete the volunteer application and submit it to volunteer@awmac.com by May 11, 2022.
